TACTICS:

The higher-leveled brother of the standard crossbow, it deals more damage per shot but is otherwise quite similar in its properties, such as its single-shot nature and quietness. As such, the tactics that apply to the crossbow also apply to this weapon.

Recommended gear:

- Glasses to improve its effective range, allowing survivors to pick off zombies from a longer distance.
- Vests to increase the wearer's health, with some variants increasing reload speed as well.

BACKGROUND:

Despite the superior range and stopping power of rifles, crossbows are nonetheless used by some, whether it's due to strict gun control laws, bow-specific hunting seasons, or simply a personal desire to live in a pre-gun era. In any case, their owners found them very useful in the apocalypse, whether in their original use, or taking down a very different prey.

Sold in select hunting, sporting or camping goods stores.
