Overview:

PROS:

- High Damage
- Attacks Quickly
- Very Accurate
- Long Effective Range
- Reloads Quickly (vs other long rifles)
- Large Magazine (vs other long rifles)

CONS:

- Moderate Move Speed Penalty

TACTICS:

One of the fastest firing rifles in the game, which, when combined with its high accuracy, range and damage per shot, makes it a very effective weapon. However, that same attack speed also means that its magazine will be emptied quickly, which, along with an average reload speed, will result in its wielder spending more time reloading than shooting.

Recommended gear:

- Ammunition Pouches/Bandoliers increases reload speed even further, reducing the amount of time survivors spend reloading.
- Extended Mags extend the already large magazine size even further, with some variants increasing reload speed as well.
- Shoes help mitigate the move speed penalty.

BACKGROUND:

A soviet semi-auto carbine fitted into a comfortable aftermarket sporting stock, which makes for a handy survival/ranch rifle that is great for warding off pesky varmints from either your livestock or your daughter's honor.

Available in many North American gun stores.
